

Brahms, Johannes - Concerto in D Major, Op. 77 - Violin and Piano - Muzyka Moscow

Written in 1878 and premiered by Joseph Joachim on January 1, 1879. Critical reaction to this work was mixed, however Brahms had higher goals for this concerto than just showing off the soloists virtuosity: the entire concerto challenges the performer and the orchestra musically. From the stern Allegro opening to the joyous Vivace third movement, the concerto comes alive with energy and emotion, full of rich harmonies and musical ideas. - Sarah Cranor, Violin, 2007 SHAR Apprentice This edition contains the solo violin part (with cadenzas by Joseph Joachim), and a piano reduction of the orchestral score.
