Fun and Adventure in the Condo Lifestyle is a fun read, a word tour across America to the widely varying sites of community associations. It portrays cities, shores, mountains, country side you may not have yet seen. You'll find condominiums and community associations much like, and some much different, from yours. It tells of people much like you, how they're managing their associations, how they've found ways of doing it successfully. The book is a collection of tales for condominium and community association owners, board members, officers, managers, and management staffers. It is also of vital interest for anyone planning to buy a condominium. In its pages are hundreds of tips and hints that may be employed to better manage an association and to make the close knit community association lifestyle more enjoyable. Management, operational, maintenance, and social dilemmas, along with the solutions described come not from some educational or legal authority. They come from condominiums and community associations much like yours, from people just like you. They seem to us, to have found ways to do it better or easier, and you'll benefit from their insight. The stories come from Angel Fire, NM; San Pedro Town, Belize, Central America; Fort Walton Beach, FL; Los Angeles, CA; Destin, FL; Huntington Beach, CA; South Walton County, FL; Big Bear Lake, CA; Navarre, FL; Chattanooga, TN; Las Vegas, NV; Gulf Shores, AL; Sun Valley Area, CA; San Francisco, CA; Palm Beach, FL; Northwest Floridas Emerald Coast; Lakeview Terrace, CA; Fort Lauderdale, FL; Punta Gorda, FL; Bal Harbor, FL; Beverly Hills, CA; St Augustine, FL; Jupiter, FL; Highland Beach, FL; Delray Beach, FL; and Century City, CA.
