

The Kingdom Coach: Basic Combat Training

The Kingdom Coach Series unfolds the continuing saga of the unusual, parabolic life of one modern-day Christ-follower. The story begins in Book One, The Kingdom Coach: Remedial Training, where she is called from birth to train and fulfill a purpose designed by the King. She is also marked from birth by an enemy who desires to destroy her life and steal the destiny before it takes shape. Watch as the pages reveal the heroic tale of a Kingdom Coach who joins her along the way. Enjoy how this gentle, but powerful Helper comes alongside, intersecting her life as she is pursued by her enemy. See how the Coach maintains a non-intrusive relationship, providing shelter in the times of storm, miracles at the moments of destruction, and grace for the day she acknowledges Him for the wisdom to walk the path of destiny. Encounter the Coach for yourself as you work your way through the personal applications and freedom tools provided by the author. The Kingdom Coach: Basic Combat Training picks up the story with an allegory that weaves in and out of the chapters along with the author's continuing story. Now the Coach becomes a firm, but loving commanding officer as he transforms the valley of the shadow of death into a training ground. Learn about how He changes this young soldier's perspective about tests and trials, and shows her how they are meant to train her, as this season of her life turns into a spiritual boot camp. Share in their warm-hearted interaction, and learn how you, too, can enjoy your own journey with the Kingdom Coach. Book Three, The Kingdom Coach: Special Ops, will complete the story. The Coach will take the author and the reader through the ultimate challenges of the journey's final mountain, where character, maturity, endurance, and the fruits of the Spirit are developed.
