

Paintings by Frederick Lyle Morris

Authors Note Frederick Lyle Morris has exhibited and sold his work in Frankfurt, Linnenbach, Furth, Mannheim, Aschaffenburg and other locations in Germany, Paris, Metz and Lyon France, Hong Kong, Korea, London England and the USA. He was featured in magazines, news releases and a host of charity events while living in Warren Michigan. He had several major shows at the Swann Gallery of Art in Detroit, hosted charity events and was a member of what was then the Warren Arts Society, SOAA, and various other art groups in the state. Lyle was the winner of the Grumbacher Gold medal of fine arts with the award going to the oil painting titled Friends. This painting was used by Princess Diana of Wales for a charity event and was sold in 2010 in Colorado Springs, Colorado. I have endeavored to present a complete picture of the artworks of Lyle. They cover several decades of work by the artist as he brought his skills to bear in the milieu of time and location. While this book is structured as a catalogue, I have chosen to group the paintings by topic to foster ones appreciation of the capabilities of the artist.
