

Musa pedestris. Three centuries of canting songs and slang rhymes [1536- 1896]

Songs, chants, and rhymes and rhymsters of the road, the canting crew in all its grades of hedge-priest, maunder, thief, tramp and trull, harlot, and gentlemen of the road. Farmer, in preparing his celebrated dictionary of slang ran across a number of canting songs, which he thought would make a useful volume by themselves. This collection ranges from the early songs found in Middleton, Copland, Dekker, Fletcher, and other early writers to the latest canting songs the compiler could find . This is the best anthology of this type to be had - when a copy can be found (Burke, Literature of Slang, p. 82).
