

The Sandcastle Award

Bob is the newest supervisor in his department, but its only temporary. While he has the job, hes determined to help get some of the people the recognition they deserve. Right away though, he finds that the company sponsored awards arent handed out on merit anymore; the whole process has gotten corrupted. Suddenly, he has an inspiration: What would be wrong with just making up an award? What he doesnt know is how awards like that take on a life of their own.
