

Villa-Lobos Heitor O Martirio dos Insetos The Insects Martyrdom Violin and Piano Theodore Presser

Never before published, this charming concert suite is an important addition to the contemporary violin repertoire. Edited by Brazilian conductor and scholar Ricardo Averbach, the solo part and piano reduction have been carefully prepared from Villa-Lobos original manuscripts. O Martirio dos Insetos (The Insects Martyrdom), originally for violin and orchestra, is a piece in three movements, each of which employs technical devices like trills and tremolos to evoke a different insect. The third movement, The Moth Around the Light, is reminiscent of Rimsky-Korsakov's Flight of the Bumblebee. For contents, please see Item Includes. Published by Theodore Presser Company.
