

Teaching Music in the Twentieth Century

Unique in both content and approach this book offers a single-volume authoritative comparison of the four most popular music education methods used in North America -- Jacques-Dalcroze, Kodaly, Orff, and Comprehensive Musicianship. Its in-depth examination of the methods and underlying philosophies of each method -- and its suggested lessons for each method at each grade level -- will help readers make knowledgeable curricular choices among methods. Both the New National Standards (MENC) and the use of technology in the study of music are described and discussed in relation to all four methods. Method in North American Music Teaching -- The Beginning. Influences on Methods, Approaches, and Philosophies of Teaching Music. Technology and Music Education. The Approach of Jacques-Dalcroze.
