

The Book of Kells: Notecard Box (Thames & Hudson Gift)

A box of twenty beautifully-produced notecards featuring details from the magnificent Book of Kells. The Book of Kells is a masterpiece of western calligraphy, undoubtedly the finest remaining example of an illuminated manuscript, and one of the most important surviving artifacts from medieval Europe. Named after the Abbey of Kells, some forty miles north of Dublin, where it was held for centuries, the Book of Kells was produced around the year 800 CE, probably in both Scotland and Ireland. It is a text of the four Gospels in Latin, employing expert calligraphy and decoration, rare colors, and other embellishments that make it a true work of art. Paying homage to the incredible beauty of the Book of Kells, this box contains twenty notecards, each individually designed with emblazoned details from the books decorated pages. Part of an line of exquisitely crafted gift products celebrating the Book of Kells, these notecards highlight the splendor of the most important surviving work of Celtic art and Irelands greatest national treasure.
