

The Last Flowers of Manet (Abradale Books)

In the winter of 1880 Edouard Manet, then 49, was dying. In the last months of his life he funnelled his waning energy into a series of remarkable still lifes - 16 small paintings of flowers - which are brought together in this book. An essay by Andrew Forge pays tribute to the artists struggle and his legacy, and Robert Gordons selections from Manets letters add poignancy to this last glow of a brilliant artistic flame.
