

Andres Guitar Academy - Portraits of Student Success in Black & White

Many Dream about learning to Play Guitar, or Perhaps getting Back into Guitar, and Getting Finally past Where They Are right Now. This book is a Picture Account of Guitar Students from Coventry, Warwickshire, West & East Midlands and surrounding areas - from all walks of life - from age 11 to 70- that have done exactly that. Some already had many years experience, and others starting out as Beginners. With Some wanting to Play Acoustic Guitar, and others Electric Guitar - soem with a band and others solo. The One key thing they all have in common is they are all Open to Possibliity - Over the years of having the privilege to share what I have learned and continue to learn, its this openness to possibility that is key - even with those Students who decide to keep their playing private, choosing to Play Purely for their Own pleasure - as well as for those who decide when they feel ready to progress and Play at Workshops, Special Student Shows and Other Immersion events - or just as a way to unwind and experience other aspects of Life and Learning that go beyond Work, beyond Career and beyond Studies. My sincere hope is that You will find within these Pictures of Possibility a glimmer of something within these pages that uniquely catches Your Curiosity, ignites Your imagination and Gets You thinking about Your Musical Possibility and Yes Reaching Your Musical Potential,
